Additional Information:

- In general, MAN 4320 Staffing is offered in Fall semester only and MAN 4350 Training and Development is offered in Spring semester only.
- 2. In addition to the requirements outlined above, each student must complete all University-wide requirements for graduation. These requirements include liberal studies requirements, the multicultural requirement, the summer residency requirement, the FSU residency requirement, and total hours requirement. Depending on time of admission to Florida State University, University-wide requirements may differ; please consult your advisor.
- 3. Please be advised that business courses offerings in the summer semester are extremely limited.
- 4. Students completing the HRM major receive a bachelor's degree in Management.
- 5. Students must not enroll in any course at another institution without first receiving approval from the College of Business Undergraduate programs Office. Once enrolled at FSU, students should plan to take their upper-level business courses at FSU. Any exception to this policy must be approved in advance by the College of Business Undergraduate Programs Office. Transfer of upper-level business courses completed prior to enrolling at FSU must be from business colleges at other 4-year, AACSB-accredited institutions. These courses must be approved for course substitution by the College of Business Undergraduate Programs Office upon entering FSU.
- 6. For additional information regarding the Human Resource Management major, contact the Department of Management, RBA 305, 644-5505.
